REPORTS

STUDENT REPORT

As the second semester progresses, students are engaged in new classes and activities. Both basketball teams will compete against Juneau Douglas soon. The Jazz band performed in Juneau, and the Kayhi Drama Kings will present "A Midsummer Night's Dream" this weekend. Next Friday, the annual job fair will connect students with local businesses for summer job opportunities, alongside class activities planned for sophomores and juniors. The following day, a Valentine's Day dance is scheduled. The outdoor classroom project, honoring Sue Stone, is nearing completion with help from Mr. Lindquist and his students. The Student Life Committee is working to improve the school environment, and mental health exit tickets are being introduced for student support.

SUPERINTENDENT REPORT

Superintendent Robbins provided report on recent district activities. Robbins highlighted the Legislative Fly-in, sharing about his time spent there. Robbins also thanked school counselors for all of their hard work, and recognized Jen Kloxin for a bike program she started at Houghtaling Elementary. Robbins also informed the board that he will be distributing information to the board, regarding the annual evaluation of the Superintendent. Robbins ended his report by sharing that Schoenbar Principal, Sheri Boehlert, had won Principal of the year for the State of Alaska.

CONSENT CALENDAR

- a. Motion to approve the ratification of ELL School Board committee assignment
- b. Motion to approve offering the position of Food Service Manager to Carrie Davis for the 2024-25 school year.

ROLL CALL:

YES - Padar, Heutte, Ginter, Guthrie, Sanderson, Tabb, O'Brien

(7-0) MOTION PASSES

NEW BUSINESS

Motion to approve the creation of a Point Higgins Elementary School closure plan for School Year 2025-2026

M/S: Sanderson/Tabb

Discussion: Business Manager Daniel Schuler gave a presentation on budget options. Ginter recommended looking at plan to close TSAS, but Robbins stated attorney opinion that it would be extremely difficult to close a charter school. Robbins explained that the motion on the table would begin the effort to start a process to develop a plan for the closure of the school. The process for closing a school would include meetings with neighborhoods and affected schools, including an extensive period of time to hear comments of all involved. Heutte opposed the motion, sharing he believed 680 BSA would be funded.

ROLL CALL:

NO Pader (preferential), Guthrie, Heutte, Ginter, Tabb, Sanderson, O'Brien

(0-7) MOTION FAILS

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Motion for the Board of Education approve the restructuring of grade levels K-6 at Houghtaling Elementary, Point Higgins Elementary and Fawn Mountain Elementary for School Year 2025-2026

M/S: Sanderson/Tabb

DISCUSSION:

Member Ginter shared her opposition to the proposed plan. Vice President Tabb shared that this is the best of bad options. Sanderson commented on the need for systematic change, and the need to alleviate the stress for the community and of staff, and agreed with Tabb that this is the best of bad options. Member Ginter asked for cost savings on options.
