

SCHOOL CALENDAR

The Superintendent or designee shall recommend to the School Board a multi-year school calendar that will meet the requirements of the law as well as the needs of the community, students and the work year as negotiated with district personnel. One inservice day each year will be reserved in the event a snow day is necessary.

The school calendar shall show the beginning and ending school dates, legal and local holidays, orientation and teacher inservice days, number of teaching days, vacation periods and other pertinent dates.
