

WEAPONS AND DANGEROUS INSTRUMENTS

For purposes of this policy, the term “firearm” is defined as follows:

- a. Any weapon (including a starter gun) which will or is designed to or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosive;
- b. the frame or receiver of any such weapon;
- c. any firearm muffler or firearm silencer; or
- d. any dangerous instrument.

The term “dangerous instrument” means:

- a. matches, lighters, and flammable devices, including fire-starter materials;
- b. any explosive, incendiary, or poison gas-
 - (1) bomb,
 - (2) grenade,
 - (3) rocket having a propellant charge of more than four ounces,
 - (4) missile having an explosive or incendiary charge of more than one-quarter ounce,
 - (5) mine, or
 - (6) device similar to any of the devices described in the preceding clauses;
- c. any type of weapon by whatever name known which will, or which may be readily converted to, expel a projective by the action of an explosive or other propellant, and which has any barrel with a bore of more than one-half inch in diameter; and
- d. any combination of parts either designed or intended for use in converting any device into any destructive device described in subparagraph (a) or (b) from which a destructive device may be readily assembled.

For the purposes of this policy, the term “deadly weapon” is defined as follows:

Anything designed for and capable of causing death or serious physical injury, including a knife, an ax, a club, or metal knuckles. For purposes of this policy, the term “deadly weapon” does not include a firearm as defined under the portion of this policy relating to the federal Gun-Free Schools Act of 1994.
